

What to do if a child is bullied at school

Many people probably at the memory of the school not only to remember friends and teachers, but also an old classmate or a classmate, over which all abused and laughed. These kids are in each class, it is the norm of modern society, teachers try to protect them, and parents often don't even know what's going on with their child at school. If you are interested in your child's life and began to notice that his behavior has changed, it is possible that his being bullied in school. Often children who are exposed to universal mocking at school, not talking to your parents about this, so you should carefully look at the child.

There are a number of signs, which argumentative essay help can determine that the child is being bullied:

- He became more vicious.
- Reduced attendance and progress.
- The child is able to deceive, he feels bad, but would not go to school, and this is repeated many times.
- Doesn't want to talk about school and things associated with it.

If in a confidential conversation, the child confessed to you that his being bullied by classmates, the first thing you need to do is to calm down. Naturally, like any parent, you are willing to protect their child and deal with anyone who dared to hurt him. But to sort things out with classmates your child can be tricky, especially when it is already more than 10 years, as this will lead to more mocking. Help the child to cope with the problem in a different way.

What to do if a child is hurt?

- You first need moral support to the child, praise for help in the home and achievement in school.
- You need to turn weaknesses because of which the child suffers, in a strong.

Chubby – record in the sports section. Let the child himself will choose the direction. For boys good option would be football, basketball, hockey and everything to do with team play. If you choose the section for girls, let it be gymnastics or dance aerobics. In case of a defect of speech is necessary to begin to engage with a speech therapist and fix these details. Abnormal occlusion, protruding ears, or even any physical disabilities, you need to try to fix it. If the cause of bullying appearance, you should try to allocate from the budget some money for new things.

- Be sure to talk to the teacher but to classmates of your child not hear the conversation. Ask what kind of relationship your child's class might have a boy (girl), which is the initiator of the conflict.

Remember, the main thing that your child knew that his family accepts anyone and loves the way he is and not for something.